

Data sheet

Standard	Climate Action Reserve
Project Name	Ejido Cebadilla de dolores
Project type	Improved Forest Management (IFM)
Registry ID	CAR 1952
Location	Madera, Chihuahua, México
Available vintages	2023, 2024
Additional certificates	Forest Management Program approved by CONAFOR
Compatible with	NIIF S1/S2, CSRD, SBTi, State Seal of Querétaro
Availability	Immediate

Basic needs within the ejido of the ejido, such as the lack of electrical energy in the rancherías

Housing Support

Development of projects with an emphasis on the vulnerable population.

- 20% Productive projects
- 30% Forest conservation activities
- 50% Basic coverage of needs

REVENUE ALLOCATION FROM CARBON OFFSET SALES

HEALTH AND WELLNESS:

- Establish a health clinic in the ejido and supply medicines.
- Support for the creation of decent housing

PRODUCTIVE PROJECTS:

- Improving productive greenhouses for people to harvest their own food.
- Establish farms of laying hens and pigs for fattening, for own consumption and subsequent marketing.

EDUCATION:

- Offer scholarships for children of ejidatarios who get a place in schools outside the community.

GENDER:

- Support the ecotourism project led by the women of the Madera ejido.

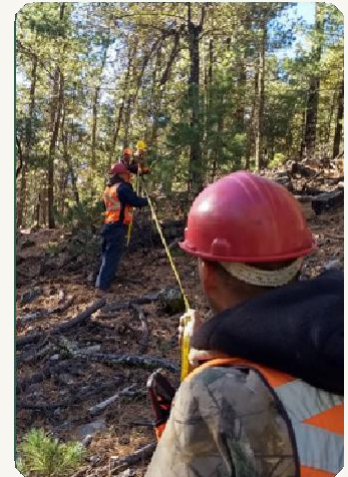

BIODIVERSITY:

- Installation and monitoring of more camera traps
- Migratory bird monitoring program in coordination with the wildlife organization (OVIS).

Data sheet

Standard	Climate Action Reserve
Project name	Ejido El Largo y Anexos
Project type	Improved Forest Management (IFM)
Registry ID	CAR 1627
Location	Madera, Chihuahua, México
Available vintages	2021, 2022
Additional certifications	Forest Management Program approved by CONAFOR and FSC
Compatible with	NIIF S1/S2, CSRD, SBTi, State Seal of Querétaro
Availability	Immediate

The only community that prevents risks to members of the community, in northern Mexico.

Life Insurance

For all members of the community.

Anti-contingency fund

To protect the project in scenarios of a larger nature.

30% Forestry program

20% Social program

20% Direct distribution to the community

20% Monitoring, reporting and verification

10% Contingency Fund

REVENUE ALLOCATION FROM CARBON OFFSET SALES

HEALTH AND WELLNESS:

- Medical expenses insurance for all ejido members.
- Establish better housing conditions, build better housing for the people who need it most.

PRODUCTIVE PROJECTS:

- Development of productive projects to improve the quality of life of the ejido, such as nurseries, furniture and handicraft factories.

EDUCATION:

- Offer scholarships for children of ejidatarios who get a place in schools outside the community.

GENDER:

- Promote female participation through a project for the creation of handicrafts, as well as the establishment of a forest nursery run by women.

BIODIVERSITY:

- Protection of swamps and bodies of water, as a priority.
- Protection of the Serrana Parrot, an endemic bird of the region.

Data sheet

Standard	Climate Action Reserve
Project name	Ejido Llano Blanco u Ojo de Frio
Project type	Improved Forest Management (IFM)
Registry ID	CAR 1853
Location	Guadalupe y Calvo, Chihuahua, México
Available vintages	2022, 2023, 2024
Additional certificates	Forest Management Program approved by CONAFOR
Compatible with	NIIF S1/S2, CSRD, SBTi,
Availability	Immediate

Basic needs within the ejido of the ejido, such as the lack of electrical energy in the rancherías

Housing Support

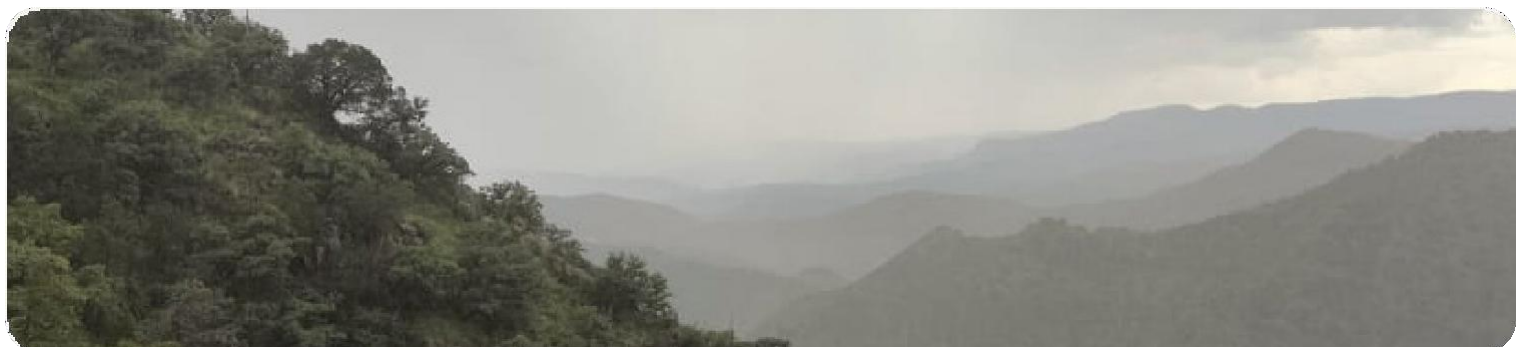

Development of projects with an emphasis on vulnerable populations.

20% Productive projects

40% Forest conservation activities

40% Basic coverage of needs

REVENUE ALLOCATION FROM CARBON OFFSET SALES

HEALTH AND WELLNESS:

- Elaboration of the doctor's house within the ejido.
- Supply of drugs to health clinics

PRODUCTIVE PROJECTS:

- Promote an ecotourism project within the ejido in a landscape area of great value.

EDUCATION:

- Economic support for the schools of the population for activities and needs.

GENDER:

- Participation of women and men equally within the paid activities of the project.

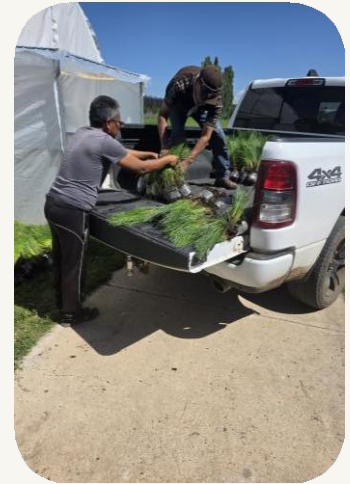

BIODIVERSITY:

- Monthly activities to waste collection.
- More forest fire prevention activities.

Data sheet

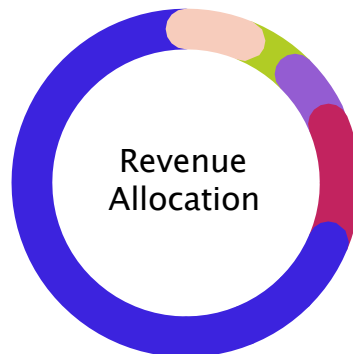

Standard	Climate Action Reserve
Project name	Ejido Madera
Project type	Improved Forest Management (IFM)
Registry ID	CAR 1593
Ubicación	Madera, Chihuahua, México
Available vintages	2021, 2022
Additional certifications	Forest Management Program approved by CONAFOR and FSC
Compatible with	NIIF S1/S2, CSRD, SBTi, State Seal of Querétaro
Availability	Immediate

A highly professionalizing ejido, granting scholarships to children of ejidatarios to continue their studies.

Housing Support

Conservation projects with attention to migratory birds.

- 10% Forestry program
- 5% Social program
- 5% Direct distribution to the community
- 10% Monitoring, reporting and verification
- 70% Contingency Fund

REVENUE ALLOCATION FROM CARBON OFFSET SALES

HEALTH AND WELLNESS:

- Hospital construction in the ejido and supply drugs.
- Support for the creation of decent housing

PRODUCTIVE PROJECTS:

- Improving productive greenhouses for people to harvest their own food.
- Establish farms of laying hens and pigs for fattening, for own consumption and subsequent marketing.

EDUCATION:

- Offer scholarships for children of ejidatarios who get a place in schools outside the ejido.

GENDER:

- Support the ecotourism project led by the women of the Madera ejido.

BIODIVERSITY:

- Installation and monitoring of more camera traps
- Migratory bird monitoring program in coordination with the wildlife organization (OVIS).

Data sheet

Standard	Climate Action Reserve
Project name	Proyecto Forestal de Captura de Carbono Ejido Salsipuedes
Project type	Improved Forest Management (IFM)
Registry ID	CAR 2040
Location	Salsipuedes, Topia, Durango, México
Available vintages	2023, 2024
Additional certifications	Forest Management Program approved by CONAFOR
Compatible with	NIIF S1/S2, CSRD, SBTi, State Seal of Colima
Availability	Immediate

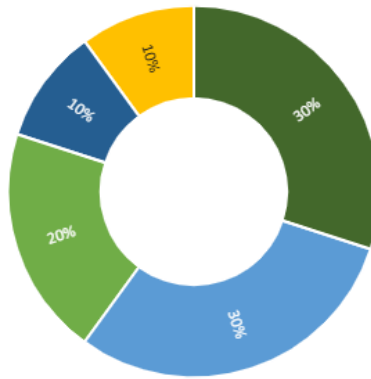

A high-integrity forest carbon project in northern Mexico, driven by a community committed to protecting its people and ecosystems.

Community infrastructure

For all members of the community.

Anti-contingency fund

To protect the project in scenarios of a larger nature.

20% Productive projects.

30% Social and environmental actions.

10% Project strengthening.

30% Community improvement programs

10% Professional development for participants.

REVENUE ALLOCATION FROM CARBON OFFSET SALES

HEALTH AND WELLNESS:

Medical expenses insurance for all ejido members.
Establish better housing conditions, build better housing for the people who need it most.

HEALTH AND WELL-BEING:

Improve housing conditions and build better homes for those who need them most.

PRODUCTIVE PROJECTS:

Develop productive projects to improve the quality of life in the ejido.

EDUCATION:

Support community education through school support.

GENDER:

Promote women's participation through a project: the creation of a women-run tree nursery.

BIODIVERSITY:

Protect conservation and restoration areas and integrate them into project areas.